

Please do not make it easier for large corporations to own multiple media outlets. We need different voices, opinions and view points in this great diverse nation. Having a radio station managed from a remote location does nothing to help the community.